   (c) Where the dependants are a widow or widower and one or more children, a lump sum payment of five hundred dollars and thereafter, a monthly payment of three hundred and fifty dollars, with additional monthly payment of seventy-five dollars for each child under the age of sixteen years, but on and after the first day of April 1982, the monthly payment of three hundred and fifty dollars and the additional monthly payments of seventy-five dollars shall apply to cases where the monthly payments being received prior to that date were less than those sums.

(e) Where the dependants are children, a monthly payment of ninety dollars to each child under the age of sixteen years.

2. Clause 41 (1) is repealed and the following is substituted therefor:

(1) If a dependent widow or widower remarries, the right to compensation under clause 40 (1) (b), (c) or (d) shall cease, but she or he shall be entitled to three hundred and fifty dollars a month for a period of twelve months from the date of the marriage or, in the discretion of the board, to be paid an amount equal to such payments in one or more amounts, payable during the said twelve months; and upon the payment of the same all payments of compensation shall cease.

The Industrial Safety Division of the Board carried out numerous centralized seminars in their efforts to educate as many of the work force, as possible, to the Industrial Safety Regulations and safe work practices in the work place.

The Construction Safety Act and Regulations will become effective April 1, 1983 and will be administered by the Worker's Compensation Board.

Our Rehabilitation Department is working closely with the injured workers in an effort to have them retrained so they can rejoin the work force.

The Minister of Labour, has appointed a Worker's Compensation Act Review Committee which is actively reviewing the Statute and is expected to report to the Minister of Labour by September 1, 1983.

Respectfully submitted,

Leo F. Rossiter, Chairman
